WILBUR J. HOLLEMAN, Attorney, National Bank of Tulsa Building, who has known Applicant approximately 20 years, advised he considers Applicant to be a loyal American of good character and associates, and he would recommend him for a position of trust and confidence. HOLLEMAN stated Applicant is a native of Russia and came to the US about 1920 after being driven from Russia by the Bolsheviks. He said Applicant was a member of the Mensheviks, a group of political intellectuals, who were violently opposed to the Bosheviks. HOLLEMAN advised he and Applicant have been associated in a number of business enterprises in the petroleum industry. During World War II, he said, Petroleum Engineering, Inc., of which Applicant is now president, and in which he, HOLLEMAN, had a large interest, undertook, with the knowledge and permission of the State Department, to sell a number of gasoline plants to the USSR as part of the Lend-Lease program. He recalled Applicant, at the time, protested vigorously at
